Where we operate:

Our programs utilize all trails throughout the Whistler Valley. Our home base is out of the Waldorf School at Spruce Grove.

What is WORCA?

We are Whistler's mountain bike advocacy group, working with local and regional governments, First Nations, developers, utility operators, private landowners, the community forest, and other stakeholders to keep our non-motorized trails open and accessible. Our vision is a passionate community that is connected by sustainable trails and pedal powered good times. The Dirt Camps are one of our key pillars in achieving that goal. Through our programming we strive to foster positive mountain bike experiences and a lifelong love for the sport and trails we ride. We work with youth ages 6 – 15 in a day camp format structured around skill development, trail exploration, stewardship, and trail etiquette.
